

2019 Dana G. Woodley Scholarship

The Imani Pearls Community Development Foundation (IPCDF) is offering educational scholarship opportunities to high school seniors and undergraduate students who will continue their education at four-year institutions in the fall. IPCDF is offering the Dana G. Woodley Scholarship specifically to students who demonstrate a financial need as they pursue a science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM)¹ education at a college or university.

Scholarship Award

IPCDF will make a one-time award of $5,000 to the recipient. The award check will be made payable to the scholarship recipient and awarded upon proof of enrollment in spring of 2019. Application materials are due Friday, April 5, 2019.

High School Seniors

- A completed scholarship application and media release form
- Submission of a typed essay (500-700 words)

Essay Topic:

What is your intended profession and what role does S.T.E.M. play in your career choice?

- Two letters of recommendation written during the current academic year (not dated before September 2018), addressed to IPCDF. One must be a character reference on official letterhead from a school official or a service organization with which you have volunteered. The second letter must be from an unrelated person of your choice.
- A letter of support from a counselor or advisor illustrating the applicant's need for financial assistance.
- 3.0 Cumulative Grade Point Average or higher (unweighted)
- The most recent official transcript in a sealed envelope OR emailed directly to scholarships@ipcdf.org from the high school with an official seal.
- An acceptance letter on official letterhead from the four-year institution you will attend during the 2019-2020 academic year.
- Proof of all community service hours performed during your high school career (documented on an organization's letterhead); a minimum of 40 hours is required.
