

2022 HBCU Scholarship

The Imani Pearls Community Development Foundation (IPCDF) is offering educational scholarship opportunities to high school seniors who will attend a Historically Black College or University (HBCU) and undergraduate college students currently enrolled at a Historically Black College or University (HBCU). The applicant must have permanent residency or attend school in the Bronzeville, Douglas, Englewood, Grand Boulevard, Hyde Park, Kenwood, Oakland, or Washington Park community.

Scholarship Award

IPCDF will make a one-time award of $2,000 to the recipient. The award check will be made payable to the scholarship recipient and will be awarded upon receipt of an official transcript and proof of enrollment in an HBCU for Fall 2022.

High School Seniors

- A completed scholarship application
- Submission of a typed essay (450-500 words)
Essay Topic:
The Black Lives Matter (BLM) movement has captured the entire world because the issues related to racial prejudice are as relevant as ever. How will you apply what you've learned from the BLM movement to your educational and career pursuits?
- Two letters of recommendation written during the current academic year (not dated before September 2021), addressed to IPCDF
 - One must be a character reference on official letterhead from a school official or a service organization with which you have volunteered
 - The second letter must be from an unrelated person of your choice
- 3.0 Cumulative Grade Point Average or higher (unweighted)
- Your most recent unofficial transcript
- An acceptance letter on official letterhead or an official email from the HBCU you will attend during the 2022-2023 academic year
- Proof of all community service performed during your high school career (documented on an organization's letterhead, formal correspondence from the organization, or noted on your high school transcript)
- Proof of permanent residency or school attendance in the Bronzeville, Douglas, Englewood, Grand Boulevard, Hyde Park, Kenwood, Oakland, or Washington Park community
